Please record your written comment about the Foundation Aid formula. You may use the space provided below to record your response. If needed, there is additional paper at the General Info table.

I believe there is a need to look hard at ways to fund regional high schools. Not just the money to run them, but also incentives for the school districts to come together to create the schools. There will also be a need for appropriate funding for transportation

Beyond just the formula, there should be a hard look at the laws and regulations for combining school districts. The process now is very convoluted and in most cases, ends up failing
